

Save Your Money.
One box of Tutt's Pills will save many dollars in doctors' bills. They will surely cure all diseases of the stomach, liver or bowels.

No Reckless Assertion
For sick headache, dyspepsia, malaria, constipation and biliousness, a million people endorse

TUTT'S Liver PILLS

BRECKENRIDGE NEWS.

The News in Brief.

New fancy grass seed at Sulzer's.

Fred Fraize went to Louisville Tuesday.

John Lillard went to Skillman Tuesday.

Stollwerck's celebrated cocoa at Sulzer's.

Mr. Wick Moorman spent Sunday at home.

Social festivities in Cloverport are booming.

Chas. B. Skillman has been visiting in Morgantown.

Miss Pearl Perrigo spent Sunday in Stephensport.

A. J. Katz, proprietor of the Fair, is in the city.

D. H. Severs was in Owensboro a few days last week.

Clarence Board, of Irvington, was in town yesterday.

Hann Baker, of Owensboro, was in town last week.

E. C. Babbage spent Friday and Saturday in Louisville.

Miss Judith Miller returned Tuesday from Hawesville.

John Burks came down from Louisville Friday night.

H. Sheldon Jarvis, of Henderson, was in town last week.

Sour kraut, the best they have ever had, for sale at Sulzer's.

R. S. Crews, of Tuscola, Ill., is visiting his father, Wm. Crews, at Harned.

Robert Connor and Grover Jarrett, of Stephensport, were in town Sunday.

We invite you to call and examine our new and complete line of prints.

Miss Annie Newton, of Owensboro, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Chas. Bohler.

Miss Lucille Sterett, of Hawesville, is the guest of Miss Lula Owen this week.

Will Overby and Ed Kelley, of Hawesville were in town Wednesday evening.

Miss Elsie Hale, of Madisonville, is the guest of Miss Bertie McGavock, near town.

Miss Hettie Hendricks, of Irvington, is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Clarence Keith.

John Newby and John Askins, of Jolly Station went to Henderson last week.

Miss Linnie DeHuy was the guest of Mrs. George Bentley, at Hawesville, last week.

Miss Margaret Skillman, who was quite ill several days last week, is much improved.

Mrs. Amanda Graham returned Friday from a visit to Henderson and Wainman.

Born, January 3d, to the wife of J. W. Pate, of Jolly Station, a fine girl, Mary Tilford Pate.

Sulzer offers to the public some marvelous bargains in plush capes. Buy now and save money.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Skillman and little daughter, Elizabeth, returned Monday from Morgantown.

Mrs. Forest Lightfoot and Miss Jennie Warfield spent Tuesday with Miss Eula Miller, near Hardinsburg.

Mrs. Wilse Adams and children, of Tobinsport, were here a few days this week, visiting relatives and friends.

Miss Lula Owen entertained a few friends Thursday evening in honor of Miss Hallie Moorman, of Glendene.

Mrs. H. J. May and daughter, Miss La Doica, have returned from a pleasant visit to Mrs. H. Mook, at Cincinnati.

Mrs. E. H. Briedenbach, of Owensboro, is visiting the family of Charles May. Her husband spent Sunday with her here.

Lee Yeager gave a birthday supper to several of his friends, Wednesday, Jan. 10th, at the home of his mother, Mrs. Sallie Yeager.

We who have tried Bon-Ami can testify that it is the best cleaner on the market. It is especially fine for mirrors. Sulzer keeps it.

Number two Remington typewriter for $25. This is a special bargain. Write for sample of its work.—O. O. Lewis, Stephensport, Ky.

Charles Satterfield and wife left Saturday for Pineville. Mr. Satterfield's health is much improved, and he goes to resume his business at that place.

Mrs. Charles P. Babbage and son, Harry Charles, who have been visiting his mother, Mrs. Alex Boyd, returned to their home in Louisville Saturday.

The local option contest was postponed until next Monday.

Mary Tutt (colored) was arrested Monday night under capias.

William Downs, who resided in this locality, has moved to Stephensport.

William Blain came from Stephensport, Tuesday, enroute to Patesville.

Christian Endeavor will meet Friday night at the Christian church. All are invited.

Mrs. R. N. Hudson and sister, Miss Nellie Gregory, went to Louisville yesterday.

William Yeakel was arraigned before Judge DeHuy Monday for disorderly conduct and fined $4 and trimmings.

BALLTOWN.

Mrs. Delila Pate is visiting in Cloverport.

Rev. Richards filled his regular appointment at Pisgah Sunday.

Mr. Benedict Mattingly, Cloverport, was out visiting relatives again last week.

Mr. Cary, a watch and clock repairer from near Fordsville, stopped at S. C. Frank's a few days last week.

Mr. Frank Mattingly, who was reported on the sick list last week, has typhoid fever. Dr. Howard reports his condition dangerous.

Mr. Fladge Whitehouse and Miss Sarah Mattingly, Mr. Thomas Riley and Miss Mattie Mattingly were married at Hardinsburg last Wednesday. The brides are the accomplished daughters of James Mattingly, residing near St. Mary's Church. Mr. Riley lives above Hardinsburg, while Mr. Whitehouse is of our Balltown. Mr. Paul Wethington acted as best man and Miss Nellie Whitehouse as bridesmaid. After the ceremony Mr. Whitehouse and his bride returned to his mother's, at this place, where a host of friends and relatives and a sumptuous feast awaited them. They were then entertained by music, rendered by R. C. Mattingly and his daughter, Miss Cora. May happiness and prosperity ever be with them.

"One Minute Cough Cure" is the best remedy I ever used for coughs and colds. It is unequalled for whooping cough. "Children all like it," writes H. N. Williams, Gentryville, Ind. Never fails. It is the only harmless remedy that gives immediate results. Cures coughs, colds, hoarseness, croup, pneumonia, bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles. Its early use prevents consumption.—A. R. Fisher.

An Attractive Guest.

We take great pleasure in reproducing the following notice found in the Bowling Green News complimentary to one of Cloverports most popular young matrons:

"Mrs. Carrie Short, who was Miss Carrie Cottrell, daughter of Dr. J. B. Cottrell, for years pastor of the State street Methodist church, is here on a visit to friends. In her girlhood Mrs. Short was one of the most vivacious and popular young women in town. She is still a merry and fascinating woman and her many friends and those of the family are delighted to meet her again. Dr. Cottrell was one of the ablest and most popular ministers that ever preached in this city and his name will long be remembered."

Charlie Ryan Dead.

Charlie Ryan, who has been suffering from paralysis for some months, died Saturday about noon. He was buried Sunday afternoon.

Kindness Appreciated.

We wish to extend thanks to the friends of Chas. Ryan for kindness shown him during his illness.

BELLE RYAN,
JOHN RYAN,
TOM RYAN.

Buying Lumber.

HARDINSBURG, Ky., Jan. 15.—(Special) Cy Pate bought recently from Charley Oelze and Barney Squires about two hundred thousand feet of lumber. He has bought several other small tracts of timber from different parties lately.

Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup conquers croup at once, cures the child and thus saves many a life. Mothers need not fear that dreadful disease, if they have this reliable remedy at hand. It is sold by all druggists for 50 cents.

Like a Letter from Home.

OWENSBORO, KY., Jan. 10.—Mr. John D. Babbage—DEAR SIR—I inclose $1 for continuation of the News. It is a splendid paper, and we could not get along without it. We are always glad when it comes, as it seems like a long letter from home. Yours truly, E. M. TAUL, 522 Hall street, Owensboro.

Tremendous Hog.

Mr. Waldo Simons, of Tobinsport, Ind., has probably raised the largest hog of his section or any other place. It weighed 510 pounds and attracted a great deal of attention. Chas. Lishen, the butcher, was purchaser.

Nursing Mothers

dread hot weather. They know how it weakens and how this affects the baby.

All such mothers need Scott's Emulsion. It gives them strength and makes the baby's food richer and more abundant.

50c. and $1. All druggists.

LODIBURG.

Edgar Addison's little girl is convalescent.

South of Lodiburg there is a sound of wedding bells.

Lucy Payne is visiting her brother, Mack Payne, of Webster.

A. M. Hardin shipped a lot of hogs to the city last Monday.

The social at Tom T. Robertson's Saturday night was a success.

The dance at Warren Miller's last Friday night was much enjoyed.

H. H. Johnson has sold to P. Martin the Hardin sugar camp for $62.50.

Miss Dollie Claycomb, of Raymond, spent last week at Mrs. H. Payne's.

James Skillman, of Sample, attended church at Walnut Grove Saturday.

Tom Robertson's little girl, Vanda, who has been very ill is improving.

Mrs. Sarah Johnson, of Garfield, will probably visit her son, Henry, this week.

Misses Nannie and Pearl Johnson attended the Robertson-Robertson wedding last Wednesday.

Basel Argabright and wife spent last Sunday with his father, Mr. Wm. Argabright, of Pokeberry Ridge.

J. M. Robertson and Carlton Payne will start to Missouri in a few days where they will reside this year.

Mr. P. Martin has bought about $1,000 worth of timber in this vicinity and will probably buy more before he leaves.

What has become of the Garfield correspondent? Arouse from your lethargy and let us hear from you once more.

Married—at the home of the bride on January 10th Miss Fannie Robertson, daughter of Napoleon Robertson, to Mr. Joe Robertson, of Texas. Joe is quite an enterprising young man and Fannie is one of Breckenridge's best girls. She has a sweet, lovable disposition and is a general favorite with all. They start in a few days for Texas where they will make their home. May joy and prosperity attend them in their far western home in the Lone Star state is the wish of a friend.

BEWLEYVILLE

Weather suits us fine.

Dr. Strother often passes this way.

When a woman has a husband named William, she has a Will of her own sure.

The next Woman's Missionary meeting will be with Mrs. Rufus Cain.

Dr. Haynes, dentist, will be in our town three days this week; 10th, 17th, and 18th.

"Bob" Jordan is not clerking for Mrs. Basham at present.

The school question is slightly agitating the public mind. We ought to have a school.

The "little folks" at L. T. Stith's have the chicken-pox.

J. M. Hardaway has been quite sick the past few days.

W. H. Cain, Sr., was too ill to attend services Sunday.

Miss Switzer, of Louisville, is making an extended visit to her friend, Mrs. D. C. Heron.

Thos. J. Jolly celebrated his 72nd birthday, Jan. 10th, by inviting his children and a few friends to dine with him. The little crowd was in finest humor and spent an enjoyable day. Of course we wish for "many happy returns."

Mrs. Thos. Northern, who has been very ill for sometime past, died at her home in Bewleyville Thursday evening, Jan. 11th at 9 o'clock. Tuesday the 9th was her birthday and she was 79 years old. She joined the Baptist church at Lost Run 52 years ago, and has since lived a member of that church. She called her loved ones to her bedside when dying and bade them a loving good bye, and hoped to meet them again. Brother Lewis conducted the funeral services at the burial grounds on Chas. Hardaway's farm, and a large crowd attended the burial. No one knows aught but good of Mrs. Northern, and her family are deeply grieved by her death. The friends and neighbors who helped in the sickness have the heartfelt thanks of the family.

BATTLETOWN.

Heavy rains Thursday and Friday.

Jas. Chism, aged about 80, is very ill at this writing.

Wm. Bennett, formerly of Chenault, has come to this place to make his future home.

After a hot argument it is decided that we live in the nineteenth century.

Rev. J. B. Haynes held a meeting at his house on Saturday night.

The Mormon elders preached at Douglas Chism's Saturday night.

M. F. Bennett visited his uncle, Mr. A. Bennett, at Chenault last week.

Misses Effie and Ibbie Haynes visited Miss Mattie Bennett Thursday night.

Dr. Wilson has closed out his drug store at this place and has gone to Oklahoma to live.

D. C. Thompson lost a house recently by fire.

M. J. Bennett spent last week at Brandenburg.

Wm. Brown spent Thursday with Rev. Haynes and family.

BARNHART BROS. &amp; SPINDLER,

TYPE-FOUNDERS AND ELECTROTYPERS,

NOS. 183 TO 187 MONROE STREET,

CHICAGO, ILL., Jan. 12, 1900.

The Breckenridge News,
Cloverport, Ky.

Gentlemen: We are in receipt of your nice paper of Jan 10th and thank you for it. We notice the nice word which you say in your editorial column; it is timely and greatly appreciated. We hope you may have all the comfort that the new Century can bring you. We re-echo all the sentiments of your editorial; it is a good thing to be friendly in business and interested in each other.

Very truly yours,
BARNHART BROS. & SPINDLER.

BIG SPRING.

Mr. Charles Moorman was in Brandenburg last week.

Ben Clarkson returned from Louisville last Wednesday.

Mr. James Harned was in Louisville last week with stock.

Bro. Hines preached to a large congregation Sunday morning.

Miss Daisy Meador is in Louisville visiting her aunt, Mrs. Collier.

Miss Adah Durbin has returned from a visit to friends in Vine Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Haw Jenkins (nee Ruby Miller) visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Miller recently.

Miss Lill Clarkson will go to Louisville, Wednesday, where she will be maid of honor at the wedding of Miss Mayme Barnard.

Ruth Hines, the little daughter of Bro. Hines, was badly burned on her face and neck last Friday by overturning a dish of hot gravy on herself.

Mr. John Hicks, of Stith Valley, who visits our town frequently, will be greatly missed for the next few months, as he leaves Monday for Hodgenville to attend school.

Miss Lady Clarkson has returned from Louisville, where she has been visiting her sister, Mrs. W. J. Hungarland, (nee Kitty Clarkson.) Mrs. Hungarland accompanied her sister home and will remain a short while with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Clarkson.

Mother Goose Party.

Mother goose calls her children together at the Fisher homestead Wednesday, January 17th, at 8 o'clock p.m., for the benefit of the Presbyterian church.

ANNUAL STATEMENT

City of Cloverport, Ky., for 1899.

Jan. 1, 1899. Balance on hand . . . $1,061 09

Aug. 18. Paid in by G. W. Short, collector . . . 117 95

Jan. 3. O.V. Telephone Co. franchise . . . 1 00

May 8. Cumberland T. & T. Co. franchise . . . 1 00

Dec. 1. L. R. Skillman . . . 139 69

Sept. 30. F. N. D'Huy . . . 443 20

Dec. 4. By C. E. Keith on '99 taxes 1,064 07

Dec. 5. By F. P. Payne, back taxes 438 09

Dec. 21. By Breckenridge Bank, back taxes . . . 618 33

Total receipts and balance . . . $3,875 34

DISBURSEMENTS.

Orders issued for street work . . . $ 787 39

" " salary account . . . 453 68

" " street lamp account . . . 220 00

" " Police Court account . . . 480 00

" " Interest account . . . 1,000 00

" " Sinking Fund . . . 434 70

Total orders issued . . . $3,381 77

Total cash receipts and balance . $3,875 34

Total orders paid . . . 3,339 59

Balance on hand . . . $ 535 75

Orders outstanding current year $87.15. Shop bonds due by the city, 1910, $10,000.00. Amount in Sinking Fund . . . Shop bonds redeemed present year, $4,000.00. Taxable value for taxes 1900, $467,456.00. Tax levy for 1900, 75c on real and personal and $1.50 poll tax, divided as follows:

Interest Account 20c, Sinking Fund 50c, General Fund 15c, and Poll Tax $1.50. Salary account, 20c. F. N. D'HUY, City Clerk.

PURE HOME GROWN

NORTHERN

Irish Potatoes.

THESE ARE GENUINE STOCK

Warranted to be the best Burkes Early, come a week earlier than any other potatoe.

Buggies, Wagons and Farm Implements. Plows, Fertilizers, Dressed Lumber, Windows and Doors, Laths, Shingles Lime and Cement.

SADDLES AND HARNESS.

R. S. BANDY,
Irvington, Ky.

NEW LINE

—OF—

Laces
AND Embroideries

This Week.

SULZER'S.

Phone 5. Ring 2.

A Happy New Year

And many thanks for your past patronage.

Begin the new year in the right path by trading at

Meade County's Largest Store.

Here your wants can be supplied at the Lowest Price.

This month we enter upon our great
Sacrifice Sale, closing out

Odds and Ends

making room for

SPRING GOODS

It is a "RARE BARGAIN SALE," and all kinds of goods must go, regardless of price.

All departments are overloaded with good values, and it will pay not to let this month "Go By" without examining the many values.

M. MEYER,
BIG SPRINGS, KY.

PUBLIC SALE AT IRVINGTON

On January 27th there will be sold to the highest and best bidder, five Town Lots in the Town of Irvington, together with the College building, Desks, etc. contained therein.

Terms of sale made known on day of sale.